

The former Royal Victoria Hospital grounds should be sold to and redeveloped by McGill University so they can expand their campus. This would ensure it remains in the public's hands. Doing so would honour The Stewart family that developed the Hospital for the citizens of Montreal.

Mamun Ansari