

I think it should be an government owned upscale signature landmark hotel with profits going to support shelters for homeless and/or victims of domestic violence who need to leave home to be safe.

This will ensure that the area will remain safe for all citizens. Average citizens need to have safe areas to maintain their mental health. The mountain and the surroundings provide this crucial refuge for Montrealers.

Andrew Cias