

I am against the location of the new primary school project. I firmly believe that this location is way too dangerous for the children, especially if they are walking to school.

I walk in that area every day and almost every day I have problems crossing the street.

A more secure location has to be found.

Brigitte Weiss-Dittmann