

I am against the future construction of a city in this green space. I feel it is important to protect this natural habitat that is necessary for all living organisms that depend on it. I know that trees provide shade , a home and food for living things. Also trees also clean our air. Stripping away the trees will also strip away the animals of their environment needed to survive.

Silvia Venturino